

Kabel Deutschland

PRESS RELEASE

Kabel Deutschland and Premiere to continue their partnership

- Kabel Deutschland agrees with pay-TV operator Premiere on a new feed-in contract running until 2012
- Premiere TV channels to complement Kabel Deutschland's TV offering: more than 200 digital TV channels in network

Unterfoehring, May 7, 2008 – Kabel Deutschland (KDG), Germany's largest cable based TV, Internet and Phone product provider, announced today that they have agreed with pay-TV operator Premiere on a new five year contract running until 2012. The contract governs the feed-in of the existing Premiere pay-TV channels over KDG's cable network. Further details of the contract, it was agreed, were not to be disclosed.

The Premiere offering over KDG's network so far consists of eight packages with a total of 29 pay-TV channels. It also includes the HD-channels 'Premiere HD' and 'Discover HD' as well as the sports package with up to 15 channels.

About Kabel Deutschland

Kabel Deutschland (KDG) operates cable networks in 13 German states and supplies its services to approx. 9 million connected TV households in Germany. Kabel Deutschland is Germany's largest cable network operator. The company develops and markets new triple play offers for digital TV, high-speed Internet and telephone connection via cable. KDG offers an open digital TV platform for all program providers. The company operates the networks, markets cable connections and provides comprehensive services for all matters of cable connectivity. In fiscal year 2006/2007 (12 months ended March 31, 2007), Kabel Deutschland reported a total revenue of approx. EUR 1.1 billion. The company has around 2,700 employees.

Press contact:

Marco Gassen
Corporate Communications
F: +49 (0)89 / 96 010 – 888
E: marco.gassen@kabeldeutschland.de

This release is also available at www.kabeldeutschland.com.